Re: United States v. Paul Ceglia,
12 Cr. 876 (VSB)

Dear Judge Broderick:

The Government writes pursuant to the Court's June 6, 2016 Order to advise the Court regarding the Government's efforts to locate Paul Ceglia, the above-captioned defendant ("Ceglia"). As was the case when the Government last updated the Court on June 23, 2016, Ceglia remains a fugitive – his location, as well as that of his wife and two minor children, remain unknown. The Government, in particular the United States Marshals Service, continues to diligently investigate Ceglia's whereabouts as well as those who may be assisting him in flight, using a variety of law enforcement tools and following up on leads from those responding to requests for information, as well as public statements purportedly made recently by Ceglia himself (and subsequently reported in the press).

The Government will update the Court again regarding the efforts to locate Ceglia in four months, by Friday, February 24, 2017, unless there are significant developments warranting an earlier notification.

Respectfully submitted,

PREET BHARARA
United States Attorney
